The cards shall be spread out in either horizontal fan-shaped rows or columns by deck according to suit and sequence. The cards in each suit shall be laid out in sequence within the suit.

- (d) at the direction of a game supervisor or casino supervisor at his/her discretion, provided that, where the game is played with a non-continuous shuffler and two sets of cards, if subparagraph (b) or (c) affects only one of the sets of cards, only that set need be shuffled.

7.2 Where the game is conducted using a continuous shuffler, cards used in the game shall be shuffled so that they are randomly intermixed while the game is in progress.

- 8.14 Having checked the hand, the Player shall immediately turn the cards face up on the layout. The dealer shall then announce the point count of the Player's Hand and bring the cards face up back to the Player's Box.
- 8.15 The dealer shall then pass the Banker's Hand to the Banker. Rules 8.13 and 8.14 shall apply to the Banker as if he/she were the Player, the Player's Hand were the Banker's Hand, and the Player's Box the Banker's Box.
- 8.16 At no time shall the Player's Hand and the Banker's Hand be passed out at the same time.
- 8.17 Nothing in this section shall prohibit the turning of the Banker's Hand before the Player's Hand provided this has been authorised by the casino supervisor and the requirements of rule 8.16 are satisfied.

12.0 Irregularities

12.1 If a third card is dealt to the Player's Hand when no third card is authorised by these rules:

- (a) it shall become the third card of the Banker's Hand if the Banker's Hand is obliged to draw a further card; and
- (b) it shall become the first card of the next round if the Banker's Hand is required to stand, unless it has been disclosed or the cards are reshuffled or replaced before the next round. If the card has been disclosed, the dealer will announce "No bets this hand" and, starting with the exposed card, deal a void hand. After the completion of the void hand, normal play will resume.

12.2 Subject to rule 12.1, if a card is drawn in excess from the card shoe or continuous shuffler:

- (a) it shall, if it has not been disclosed, be used as the first card of the next round of play unless the cards are reshuffled or replaced before the next round;
- (b) if the card has been disclosed, the dealer will announce "No bets this hand" and, starting with the exposed card, deal a void hand. After the completion of the void hand normal play will resume.

12.3 If the first card of a round of play is found face up in the card shoe or continuous shuffler, the dealer will announce "No bets this hand" and, starting with the exposed card, deal a void hand. After the completion of the void hand normal play will resume.

12.4 Subject to rule 12.3, any card found face up in the card shoe or continuous shuffler during a round of play will be used in that round.

12.5 If there are insufficient cards remaining in the card shoe or continuous shuffler to complete a round of play, that round shall be void and a new round shall commence after all of the cards have been replaced or, where permitted, reshuffled, and placed in the shoe or shuffler.

12.6 Should any error occur during any round due to the incorrect dealing or placement of a card or cards, every effort shall be made to reconstruct the round in such a way as to cause the sequence of cards dealt to be as it should have been had the error not occurred and, in the event that a reconstruction takes place, the casino operator and the players shall abide by the consequences. Should it not be possible to reconstruct the round, the casino operator shall declare the whole round void. The cards dealt shall be removed to the discard rack and any wagers shall be void and be returned to the player or players concerned.

- 12.7 If the dealer fails to draw and discard cards at the beginning of a shoe as provided in rule 7.7, or in any other situation where this is required, play shall nonetheless continue as provided in the rules.
- 12.8 Notwithstanding the application of rules 12.1 to 12.7 subsequent to any error occurring, whether or not the error results in a void hand being declared, all hands dealt thereafter shall stand as dealt.
- 12.9 If a game results display is provided at the table, the casino operator shall not be responsible for the display of any incorrect results or other information or for consequences of any other malfunction of the display.
